In 1954, Bud was transferred to the company's home office in North Chicago, Illinois, and appointed Associate in Sales Research and Fleet Manager.

He received his B.S. degree in Business Administration from De Paul University and is currently attending the Industrial Management Institute at Lake Forest College.

Bud Fenger's election to the presidency rounds out a number of years of distinguished service to NAFA in a variety of capacities. Under his capable leadership we look forward to a continuation of the rapid growth of our association.
